GAS DEMAND HIGH
Gas company officials report that the demand for their product has been unusually high for October this year.

FIRE CALL
All fire apparatus turned out at the Crescent Furniture Company on the south side last night at 11:10 o'clock when a fire blew out in a boiler. There was no fire and no damage other than that the fire blew.

NAVY DAY DANCE
It is learned today that Harry Summers' orchestra of Warren has been engaged for the Navy Day dance which will be held in the state armory in Jamestown on Saturday evening, October 23.

BLACK PANTHER AGAIN
After nearly a year without any reports of a black panther in this area, now comes the story that such an animal was seen last Friday by William, 11-year-old son of Ernest Dunnewold, who resides six miles north of Corry. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Dunnewold saw the animal in the pasture with the cattle, but before he could get a gun it had disappeared.

ABANDON BUILDING
The Corry V. P. W. Post has abandoned its plans to erect a $75,000 building for its activities because the Liquor Control Board has decided that the license of the post would have to be cancelled if the proposed building were erected because it would be less than 300 feet from the Methodist church property. The post will probably sell the lot and secure another location.

SCHOOL DEFICIT
Lowered state appropriations resulting from a new method of computing real estate valuation, will confront Meadville School District with a $125,000 deficit in 1949-50, it was disclosed in a regular board meeting Monday night. As an aftermath of this announcement by Charles J. Miller, chairman of the board's finance committee, President Wallace C. Dean and Secretary-Manager Ben R. Beisel, the board learned that there will be no blanket $150 per year increase for Meadville teachers.

AGENTS TO MEET
The monthly meeting of the Purchasing Agents Association of Northwestern Pennsylvania will be held at the Corry Hotel Thursday. Members will be present from Bradford, Warren, Titusville, Oil City, Franklin, Corry, Jamestown, N. Y. and Olean, N. Y. Mr. S. J. Irvine, president of Aero Supply and Manufacturing Co., Corry, Penna. will talk on "Present Air Craft Program, New Ships, and Placing of Phantom Orders in Event of War". A report will be made by T. F. Servatius on the Purchasing Agents Conference held in Cincinnati, Ohio on September 27th and 28th.

HONEYMOON INTERRUPTED
John Dahlberg, 49, of Jamestown, N. Y. died within an hour Sunday after being struck by a honeymoon couple's car at Allen and Institute streets there. He suffered a skull fracture, internal injuries and a brain laceration according to Coroner Samuel T. Bowers. Police booked Richard J. Rudolph, 22, of East Hickory, on a charge of violating the speed limit law. Rudolph entered a plea of innocent when arraigned before Judge Barger in city court and posted $50 bail. Rudolph and his bride, the former Gloria Stoddard, were married in the Methodist church at Tidoune on Saturday, and were on their way home from Niagara Falls when the accident occurred. Police said Rudolph's car skidded for a distance of 102 feet before it came to a stop.

GAME PROTECTORS' TIMELY TIPS
October in Pennsylvania—crisp, invigorating and riotously colorful—unparalleled for scenic beauty anywhere! It is not surprising that the dyed-in-the-wool outdoorsman should then feel an urge that will not be denied. He is drawn to field and forest as by a magnet. He may work his hunting dog, he may prospect familiar game territory, or he may simply roam, reveling in Nature's handiwork upon which man has never improved. At this time the trapper reads his equipment for the woodcock hunter, seeks the "timber doodle" as a warmer-upper to the small game opener, not long distant. Yes, particularly for those who love the out-of-doors, it is certainly great to be alive in Pennsylvania in October. (Woodcock season opened October 9, closes November 7. Groundhog hunters are reminded that "pigs" may not be taken during October of this year).

ANOTHER NAME ATTRACTION COMING TO WARREN

On Wednesday evening, October 27th Warren will again have an opportunity to dance and hear another big time name orchestra, Charlie Fisk, his trumpet and his famous orchestra, coming direct from two return engagements at Bill Green's night club in Pittsburgh, featured with the attraction will be that lovely singing star, Ginny Coon. And Gene Canfield vocalist, along with fourteen radio, stage and recording entertainers, the dance will be held at the Roseland ballroom. Son's of Italy Recreation Center and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Charlie Fisk, famous for doing the difficult trick of playing two trumpets at the same time and with this accomplishment has made the trick even more difficult by going so far as to play the melody on one trumpet and the harmony on the other. This stunt of tripling-tonguing on two trumpets at the same time draws applause from every dancer who has ever heard him and sure to please them all.

When Charlie Fisk's band engaged in a "battle of bands" with Harry James orchestra at the University of Missouri a few years back, James praised Charlie's trumpeting and labeled Charlie's band as a "terrific new outfit". Since then this young man with a horn has been acclaimed by critics as one of the country's most outstanding trumpeters.

New Officers Installed By Legion Post

Principal business of importance at the semi-monthly meeting of Chief Cornplanter Post, No. 135, American Legion was installation of newly-elected officers of the Warren and Sugar Grove units.

Installation ceremonies were in charge of C. H. Cozad, of Franklin, who is commander of the 28th District. Accompanying him was T. L. Burger, adjutant of the 28th District, and R. J. Hendershot, commander of the Franklin post.

Those inducted for the Warren slate were: Commander, Sidney W. Blackman; senior vice commander, James Torrance; junior vice commander, Willis Lundahl; adjutant, John Bay; finance officer, John Haggerty; historian, Cy Siegfried; sergeant at arms, Robert Schatzle; chaplain, Robert Lundberg.

Sidney Krebs was installed commander of the Sugar Grove Post, with Joe Thorps as senior vice commander; Gerald Loomis, junior vice commander; Jim Boyer, adjutant; Jack Thorpe, finance officer; Bob Brown, historian; Willard Dexter, sergeant at arms.

Aid Society Cites Foster Home Needs

There were eleven members in attendance Tuesday for the regular monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society board of directors, when it was announced that, in response to the newspaper appeal and through the generosity of a local company, the agency has been presented with a typewriter.

Members of the board were again reminded, however, that the most pressing current need is a dictaphone.

Claire Elliott, social worker, stressed the continued need for more foster homes, where children under the agency's supervision may be given the care and attention they so desperately need.

A vote of thanks was extended to the Kiwanis Club for its continued interest and help in the organization's work.

TRUMAN PASSES THROUGH

The Harry S. Truman train passed through nearby McKean county via Port Alleghe last Friday night but very little stir was made among political circles there. Police were stationed at all overhauled bridges along the presidential train's route but the precautions taken were not as elaborate as when the king and queen of England passed over the same route several years ago.

MORE WHOOPING COUGH

A noticeable increase has been found in the number of whooping cough cases in Chautauque county, according to health authorities there. Sixty-one cases were reported for September as compared to 36 for the previous month. A campaign for immunization against the disease is now being conducted with it being urged that all children be inoculated.

BRADFORD AIDS FLIERS

The citizens of Bradford Sunday night helped two fliers lost in the darkness above the city to reach a safe landing. The small plane, piloted by Tyler E. Leslie, of Port Alleghe, had been circling the city for more than an hour, unable to find Mt. Alto airport which has no landing lights. Airport authorities, knowing the craft was overdue, contacted police who put it up to the townspeople. Fifty motorists lent their cars and the headlights were flashed on the runway to form a path of light. Another plane was sent into the air to guide the distressed ship to the lighted field.

LABOR PROBLEM

Pennsylvania employers are finding it difficult to replace student workers now returned to school, says the Department of Public Assistance. As a consequence, the department said, handicapped and marginally employable workers, many of whom are on the state assistance rolls, are finding more opportunities for employment. At the same time, the department reported that the state's general assistance rolls last week enjoyed their heaviest decline in three months. A drop of 641 cases was reported bringing the total case load down to 25,849 cases, containing 39,051 persons.

Best Carnival Yet Planned By Civic Club

A report from Gerald Rickerson, chairman of the 1948 carnival to be held in the North Warren Community house from October 27th through October 30th, has it that the various committee in charge of the numerous activities are hard at work and are making wonderful progress toward the biggest and best carnival yet.

This year's carnival will be the 15th consecutive celebration sponsored by the North Warren Civic Club. Chairman Rickerson says that each succeeding year has been a bigger and more spectacular carnival than the year before and this year will be no exception to the rule.

Each evening will be featured by an outstanding bill of free entertainment, there will be special prizes and new and old games for both young and old.

The climax to the four evenings of celebration will come with the awarding of two very valuable gifts on Saturday evening.

Those attending this event will find free parking space opposite the community house.

Tickets for this affair may be had from any member of the North Warren Civic Club and are also on sale at the B and B Smoke Shop, Don Finley's and Mack's News Room.

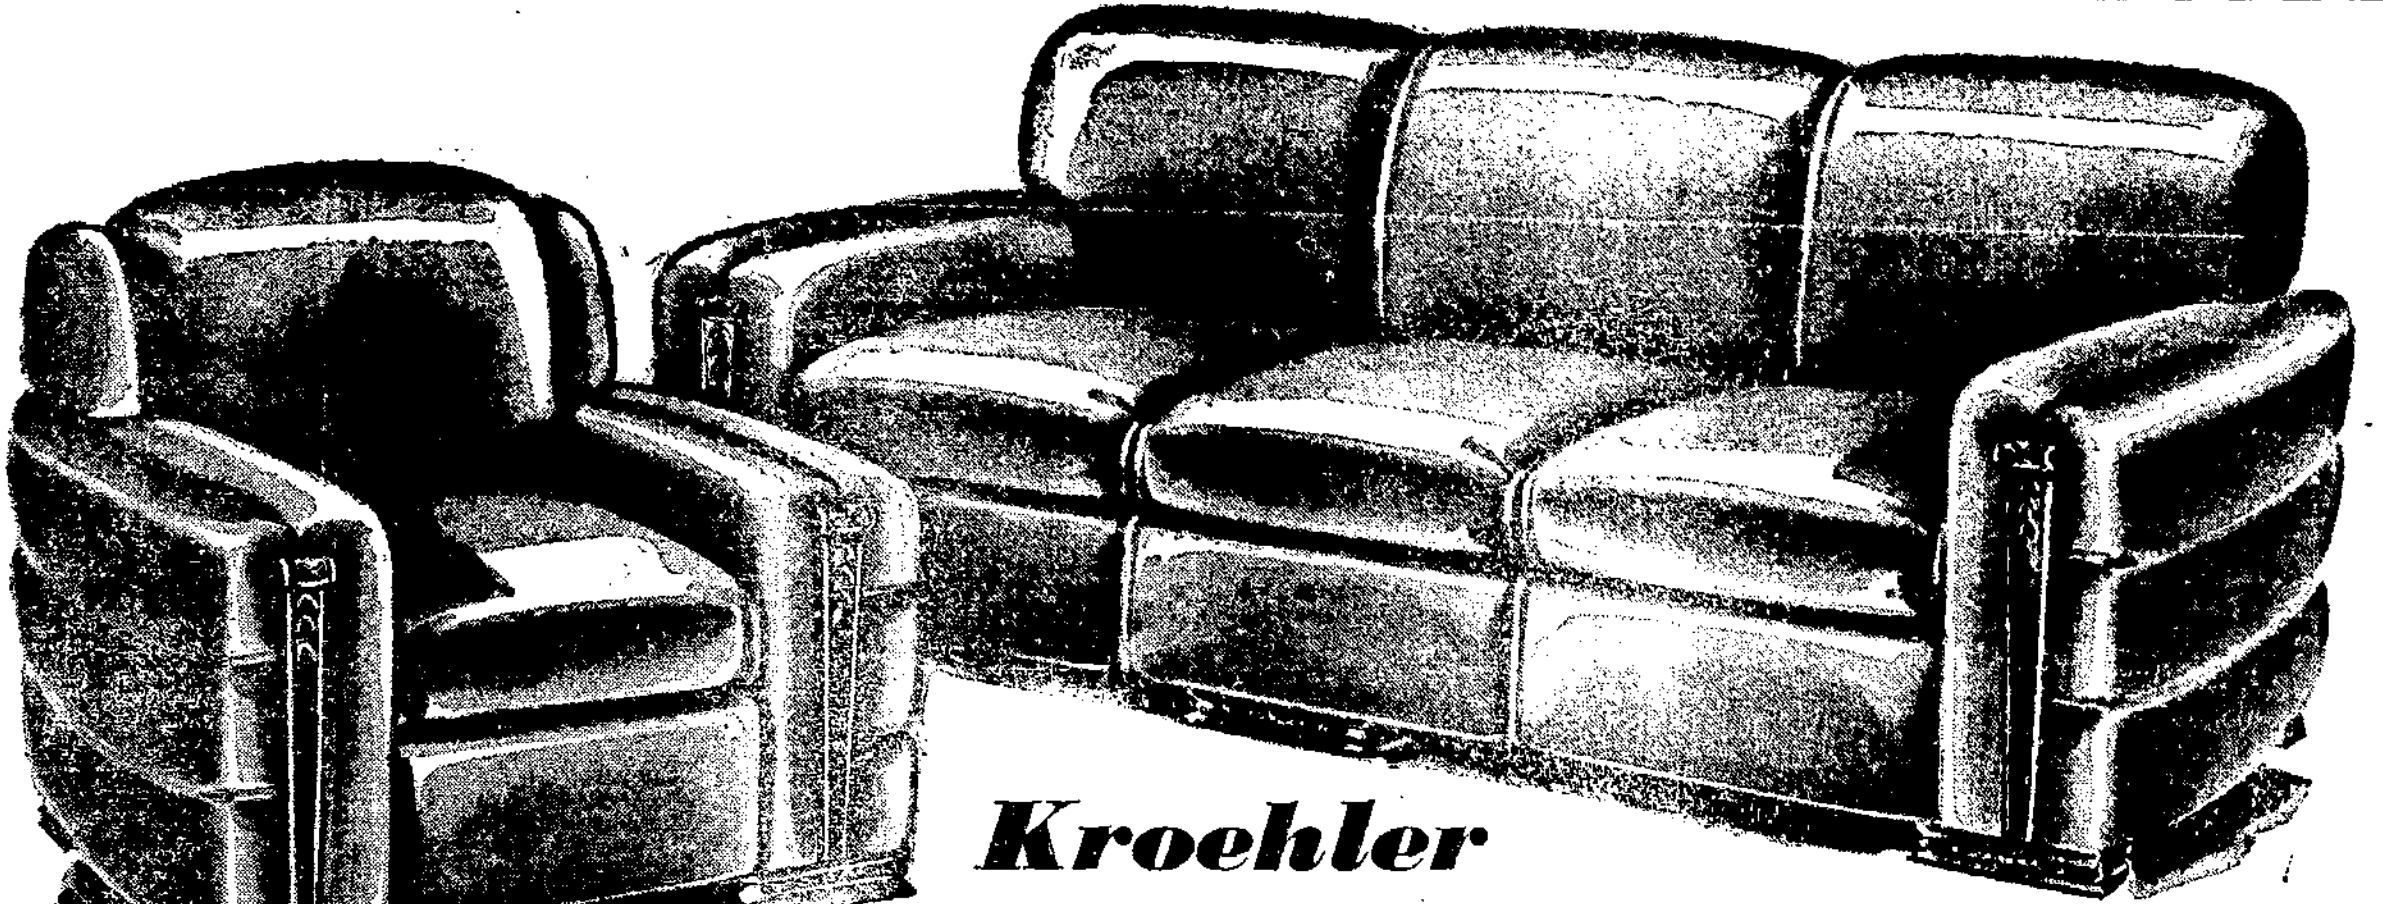

Youngsville Men To Have Get-Together

Youngsville, Oct. 12—The Saron Lutheran Brotherhood has invited the Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren Brotherhoods and many members of the Youngsville school faculty to meet in the Saron church parlors at 8 p. m. Thursday, when an interesting program is planned.

Mrs. Helen Schluraff, of the Erie Business and Professional Women's Club, was guest speaker Monday evening at the meeting of the local club, held at the National Forge clubhouse. Mrs. Schluraff was present at the organization of the local unit and has many friends in town.

Mrs. R. L. Mead was hostess to the evening group of the WSCS, with Mrs. Nellie Anderson leading the devotion. At the business session, it was decided to cooperate with the afternoon group in a rummage sale to be held Thursday and Friday of this week and again the same two days of next week. Plans were also made for observing the Week of Prayer, with Mrs. Nellie Anderson and Mrs. James Shippe as the committee for the evening meeting on Wednesday.

WARREN, PA.

October 27th, and Sunday, October 31. The program included reports from the recent district convention and other WSCS news. The November meeting will be a one o'clock luncheon on the fifth, if all Methodist women at the church, with the district president as the speaker. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Leota Day.

At the meeting of the Orange Circle held at the home of Mrs. Julian Stewart, an election of officers was held with the following results: President, Mrs. J. G. Kellerman; vice president, Mrs. Tyrus Cobb; secretary, Mrs. Gurney Ball; treasurer, Mrs. Bertha Dyer. Appreciation was expressed to Mrs. J. E. Chappel, retiring president, for her two years as head of the organization. Mrs. Chappel conducted the social hour of games, with awards given to Mesdames Nelson, Tellman and Taylor. A delicious luncheon was served. The club is now preparing to take part in the Christmas bazaar of the Circles.

Many Youngsville people attended the open house of the fine new building of the Pennsylvania Electric Co. John's Jewelry store, with an attractive stock of trade, has been moved across the street from its former location and now occupies the rooms formerly occupied by C. C. Johnson's store. Albert Gentile is the new owner.

of Jean's Beauty Shop. Don Agnew is back in Youngsville, and with his family will occupy apartments in the building at the corner of Main and Railroad streets.

You no longer need to push the button for an elevator—you just touch it. Tiny electronic tubes behind the push buttons on the elevator well will bring the car to a stop at your floor when needed, perfectly aligned with the floor for easy entrance.

There are insects which hatch and die of old age within a single day. Fish apparently obtain about all the water they need through their skins and the food they eat. Adult mosquitoes live for several months.

DO NOTHING AN HOUR A DAY

Advocating a revival of the lost art of doing nothing, Don Herrold, in The Reader's Digest for October, takes a deep look at our use of leisure and comes up with plenty of misgivings.

An hour with nothing to do so terrifies the average American, Herrold says, that he jumps in his car, drives off fiercely in pursuit of diversion, and often ends up as a vital statistic in the Monday morning papers. Even our sports, games and kindred time-killers are organized for efficiency. Applying the industrial ideal of high productivity even to our off-moments, we set ourselves to doing nothing with dispatch.

The author thanks heaven he grew up in Bloomfield, Ind., in the horse-and-buggy era when people had time to sit and think, or just to sit. Because Bloomfieldians had leisure to gather in the shade or in the back room of Cavin's drugstore, where rich and elevating conversation came easily, the town was full of characters, not robots. Herrold sees all this as a possible explanation of Indiana's prolific production of literary figures. "Indiana had hundreds of Bloomfields, in which folks talked and lived literature without knowing it. Some of them just naturally got to writing it."

Too much busyness is messing up your life, Herrold warns, when you don't take time to look up a word in the dictionary and, while you're at it, a word or two above and below. The very verbs of our American language testify to our hasty and violent living. We "catch" a train, "grab" a bite of lunch, "contact" a client.

Recommended to those in too much hurry are things like these: more walking with no place to go; fewer appointments and more chance encounters; less talk with people who we think can help us in our careers and more with people who aren't going to help us get anywhere—the man who comes to fix the refrigerator, the carpenter, the elevator man.

Minds, as well as crops, need rotating, Herrold observes. Take up oil painting, he advises, even if you're lousy at it. It's slow, and it will teach you to look.

Shower baths are deplored as too fast and too efficient. Nobody ever thought anything out in one. Soak.

A THOROUGHGOING AMERICAN IDEA

The Community Chest is a thoroughgoing American idea that wins a warm response from all of us.

Most of us can remember the way community enterprises used to be financed—the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Salvation Army, the Boy Scouts, and all the rest. Each Warren organization would assemble a committee—nine in all—and send the members out to solicit funds at different times during the year. Some got a lot; some got a little—and the difference wasn't always due to the relative value of the projects. The best promoters got the most money. If one of the organization had on its staff a man who, as the saying goes, could sell refrigerators to Eskimos—why, that organization prospered most.

The Community Chest system was adopted in wartime in a vast number of cities and towns. It worked. It saves people annoyance and time. It gets the right amount of money to the right place. It represents good sense.

Another phase of contributing to the Community Chest is what might be termed "Installment" giving. You may spread your payments over the year. A contribution designed to help support the nine Warren agencies and the USO for a full year outstrips the limits of one cash payment. By pledging a contribution on a monthly or quarterly basis you can give what you would really like to give—because you have time enough to give enough.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

Eric Johnston, boss man of the movie industry, became a candidate for America's No. 1 diplomat by getting in to see Uncle Joe Stalin and Marshal Tito and reaching an agreement with them—to sell them American movies.

Just what sort of pictures they'll buy we can't imagine. But it's just possible that when their bookings are finally announced a big mystery will be cleared up.

Months ago the Thomas Committee promised that it would produce some Hollywood products that would prove its contention that some screen plays were dripping with Red propaganda. It never produced them. Now, perhaps, their mysterious titles will be disclosed on the marquee of Moscow's first-run movie houses.

Over two million dollars are spent by Americans on health supplies each year. It's enough to make you sick.

Weak ends will be disastrous for a lot of football teams.

Here And There

Introduction of Western Union credit cards enabling the traveling public to send telegrams and simply say "charge it" from anywhere in the United States, has been announced by O. J. Smith, local manager of the telegraph company. Both domestic and international messages may be sent without prepayment by holders of the credit card, Mr. Smith says. The cards will be honored for messenger errand service at any Western Union office. Mr. Smith points out that the card is especially convenient for business representatives and other travelers "on the road" who can now wire and "charge it" at hotels, airports, railroad stations, trains or over customer teleprinters wherever they might happen to be, by merely giving the name and account number.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, the most sacred day in the Jewish year, started last night and continues until this evening. In conformity with the Biblical injunction, "Ye shall afflict your souls," it is customary to abstain from all food and drink from sunset on the eve of Yom Kippur until the night of the following day. The entire day is devoted to prayer and supplication in the Synagogue. The principal theme of worship which is repeated in all five services of the day is confession of iniquity and sin, and earnest entreaty for the Almighty's forgiveness and mercy. The Talmud emphasizes the fact that transgressions against our fellow man are not pardoned by the Day of Atonement unless amends have been made to the person injured.

This And That: The young people of the Excelsior church on the Spring Creek road, are sponsoring a "circus" entertainment in the Bethel Parish house on the Church Road, next Saturday evening, the proceeds to be devoted to the work of the Excelsior church. . . . In Cleveland for the World Series we were privileged to meet Ed Burns of the Chicago Tribune, and president of the Baseball Sports Writers' Association of America, and incidentally one of the official scorers of the games, who spoke in glowing terms of the late Harry Nelly, Chicago sports writer, who started his newspaper career in Warren. . . . The Hilltop had its first trace of snow Saturday night after the temperatures had sagged to thirty degrees following a heavy rain. . . . Miss Frances Maher, of Kane, well known in many in this city, made it in a wheel chair to the testimonial banquet at the Penn Kane hotel—given in her honor as a result of election to the post of National Vice Supreme regent of the Catholic Daughters of America. Miss Maher, who has served as Pennsylvania State Regent of the order for 32 years, was en route home from a meeting in Lock Haven when she was injured as she parked her car at Emporium and stepped out to walk around to the sidewalk, and an Emporium motorist backed his car at the same time, knocking her down. . . . The Halloween business is beginning to jell, with increasing complaints being made about pranks. . . . James A. Connelly, of Ludlow, was re-elected to his seventh two-year term as county chairman and treasurer of the Republican committee of McKean county, at a meeting last Saturday in the Penn Kane hotel. . . . Papers in both Corry and Jamestown were represented at the World Series games in Cleveland. . . . We encountered Howard Potts, former Warren man, on the street, near the Hollenden hotel in Cleveland Sunday morning, and he asked to be remembered to local friends, especially around the Elks club. . . . Our information is that the scalpers did not take the beating they were believed to have sustained at the Friday game—Sports writers out at the stadium Sunday said definitely that tickets for many of the vacant seats were held by Boston fans who were on special trains that failed to arrive in Cleveland until the game was almost over.

Itchy Pimples Kill Romance

Many shattered romances may be traced directly to scratching of skin blemishes. Why tolerate itching of pimples, eczema, angry red blotches and other irritations when you can get first relief with soothing Peterson's Ointment? 40c all drugists. One applicator delights or money refunded. Also for tired cracked feet. (adv.)

Brotherhood Hears Talk By Physician

Members of St. Paul's Lutheran Brotherhood opened their regular meeting with an appropriate devotional period and the report of a very successful Warren District Brotherhood meeting held in the local church last month.

Dr. Richard Parks, of the Warren State Hospital staff, in his talk on "Mental Illness" and "I" brought forcibly and intimately to every member present the increasing prevalence of mental illness brought about through more intense activity in every phase of modern day life, together with anxiety over outcome of the future in both individual and national matters.

In addition, he said, the longer life span of each individual now being experienced brings to the aged an increased degeneration of brain cells and blood vessels. Anxiety, often needless, is something that every person should endeavor to eliminate, the speaker stressed.

His figures showed that mental illness is now prevalent in one out of every ten persons in the country and every individual's effort should be toward improving their care and making every possible personal contribution toward better support by community, church and state.

The present cost of maintaining each patient in a state institution, he showed, is about $60 a month. In the discussion period which followed his talk, Dr. Parks brought out the fact that the cost per patient in a private hospital is about $300 a month and in church institutions, about $80 a month.

The program brought to each man present the realization that each Warren citizen should make himself more familiar with our state institutions in an effort to assure increased support of their programs.

Hosts for this month's meeting were Harold A. Nelson, Harold T. Nelson, Henry Nicholson and Erick Nystrom.

Auto Dealer Dies Suddenly At Home Here

Charles A. Hubbard, long a familiar figure in the community's automotive field, died suddenly early this morning at the family home, 207 East street. While he had not been in the best of health for some time, the death of the 52-year-old man was a great shock to many who had not known his condition was considered serious.

Born in Clarendon on January 3, 1886, he had lived in this vicinity all his life. He entered the automobile business in 1914 with the Maxwell Corporation and continued with the same line when that firm was absorbed by the Chrysler Corporation. He operated the C. A. Hubbard Motor Sales in East street for many years, moving to 710 Pennsylvania avenue, east, several years ago when he sold his former site to Sylvia Electric Products Co.

In connection with his business interests, he was affiliated with the National Automobile Dealers Association and the Pennsylvania Automobile Association, and had been an active member since 1906 of the Automobile Old Times Association.

Active in many community and fraternal circles, he was a member of the First Presbyterian church, the Conewango Club and Conewango Valley Country Club; North Star Lodge, No. 241, F. and A. M.; Condorsport Consistory; Occidental Chapter, No. 230, Royal Arch Masons; Warren Commandery, No. 63, Knights Templar, and Zeta Zeta Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine.

Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Lewis C. Hubbard, Warren; one sister, Mrs. Isabelle Schwartz, Warren, and two grandchildren.

Removal has been made to the Lutz Funeral Home, where friends will be received at the usual calling hours. Arrangements for services in his memory have not been completed and will be announced tomorrow.

BACK FROM SERIES
Among the Warren fans who witnessed the three games of the World Series played in Cleveland were Ort Boyd, Sherm Bisson, Clair J. Beyer and Harold Baker.

Lutherans to Vote Largest Church Budget

The convention authorized a special commission of the church to meet with similar commissions of other branches "to confer and negotiate organic union."
Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the ULCA and chairman of the commission which proposed union, said: "This is a resolution of great gravity and possible historical significance."
The total membership of the ULCA and the other branches is 3,851,981.
Only one major group of Lutherans in America—the Missouri synod is not included in the efforts for union.

Members of the American Lutheran Church, holding their biennial convention simultaneously in Fremont, O., are also considering the merger with other branches of the Lutheran faith, each sprung from a different country. The Rev. Alvin Matz, of Baltimore, asked that recommended affiliation with the American Lutheran Conference be amended to include possible steps toward the ultimate merger.

The American Lutheran Church, with 670,000 of the entire 6,000,000 Lutherans in the United States, has no present doctrinal difference with the other four branches of the American Lutheran Conference. They are: The Evangelical Lutheran Church with 725,000 members, Augustana Lutheran with 423,000, Lutheran Free Church with 53,000, and the United Evangelical Lutheran with 41,000.

Air Lift Will Succeed U. S. Officials Say

The Soviet official press said the subject of missions had been broached by Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in Germany, to the American, British and French commanders.
Sokolovsky was reported to have said: "The missions were accredited to the Allied Control Council. But now the control council no longer exists. So how can we talk about accredited missions?"
The Soviet report said the west-

The military rites will be conducted by the Michael and Nicholas Peroski Post, No. 8755, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Sheffield.

Record Pay Boost For Mine Chief

The earnings of leaders of many subsidiary AFL unions. Among actions taken at the Mine Workers convention, which concluded yesterday, was adoption of a political action resolution condemning President Truman and faintly endorsing his Republican opponent for the presidency. Thomas E. Dewey, Lewis knocked some of the edge off that at the final session when he took issue with Dewey's defense of the Taft-Hartley act.
Without mentioning Dewey's name, Lewis told the convention: "That man just never read the act."
At Pittsburgh Monday night, he said the act preserved labor's right to talk together.
In the final act of the nine-day session, the miners adopted a 10-point contract policy for next spring's negotiations. In general, the objectives are the same demands which Lewis handed the coal operators over the past three years.

ern military governors had not disclosed their stand on the Russian proposal.

NO FAIR MEETING
An announcement from Tona calls attention to the postponement of the fair committee until next Friday evening.

MORE SOOT CALLS
Police yesterday received a number of soot calls from the Prospect street area in addition to the ones coming in from Mead street.

MISCHIEF CALLS
The only activity shown on the police docket last night was another series of mischief calls from householders when youngsters are jumping the Halloween season.

SECOND DRAFT CALL

The Warren county draft board has received a second call for men to go to Erie for pre-induction physical examinations. How many were called for at this time is not known as Melvin Keller, chairman of the board, could not be reached today. The group included in the first call will go to Erie for their examinations next Tuesday, it was learned today.

FIRE STOPPED

Warren firemen have perhaps not received enough credit for making what was almost a sensational stop of the fire which burned in the attic of the G. G. Greene home on Sixth avenue Saturday night. Those qualified to know say that but for the most efficient work of the local firefighters, the home could easily have been a total loss.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

The recently reorganized Young Democrats Club will have a rally meeting at eight o'clock this evening in the Democratic headquarters in the Bagles' building. In attendance will be Mrs. E. O. Pequin, not, Tidoute, state committee woman; Francis Manno, Johnstoneburg, candidate for representative in congress, and William McGuckin, candidate for the post of representative in assembly. Attention of party members is also called to announcement that the Democratic headquarters will remain open daily, 10 a. m. until 9 p. m., from now until after election.

MEN WANTED

City and state police in this area have been alerted to be on watch for two colored men who are wanted for robbery and attempted murder following an escape in Buffalo, N. Y., in which they robbed a service station and took the attendant, James Younger, with them to their car. Near Edinboro, they tied Younger up and threw him out in a field and stabbed him twice, leaving him for dead. He was able to escape from his bonds and make his way to a nearby farmhouse. The men are described as driving a 1939 light green Dodge sedan with white sidewall tires. One is about five feet ten inches tall, weighing about 150 pounds, and the other is five feet six inches tall, weighing about 160. It is thought that they were heading for Cleveland, but they may be in this vicinity.

Miketish Is Stricken With the Mumps

Smethport, Oct. 13—(P)—The trial of George Miketish, 28, charged with murdering his wife three months ago, was halted today when doctors reported the defendant had come down with mumps.
Shortly after court reconvened this morning Miketish's attorney, Gavin McCoy, told the court Dr. William Murray, county physician in consultation with another physician, Dr. F. E. Guenter, had diagnosed the ailment last night.
McCoy said his client had not felt well for several days. After court recessed yesterday Sheriff William Reese said he summoned Dr. Murray to examine the defendant. The doctors' consultation and diagnosis followed.
Judge Charles G. Hubbard then announced, "the court is exceedingly reluctant to recess this case at all, the jury being drawn and everything ready to proceed."
"However, the attorneys for the defense and the commonwealth have presented the facts and there is nothing else the court can properly do but recess until Friday morning at 10 o'clock when we will hear another report from the doctors."

Many Activities Announced For The Woman's Club

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club held its first fall meeting Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Donald P. Morgan presiding.
Mrs. W. C. Fuellhart, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, announced the coming attraction, October 20, of Ruth Enders in "Dramatic Miniatures" in the club auditorium.
Mrs. W. N. Hutchings announced the November activities and Mrs. David Beatty invited the county fair knitters to her home on Thursday.
Announcement was made by Mrs. B. H. Mathis of the Community Service meeting next Monday afternoon, when Dr. Carl E. Whipple, assistant superintendent of borough schools, will be the guest speaker.
Mrs. Earl Stricker introduced the afternoon's speaker, Mrs. James A. Ramsey, of Washington, D. C., who reviewed the book "The Claret Rock" by Alice T. Hobert, which is a thesis on the great Central Valley of California. She pointed out that this is the second most productive valley in the world and the story is woven around its irrigation problem. Mrs. Ramsey recommended the work highly because of her own knowledge of the area in question. She is a native of Pennsylvania, but has lived for many years in California. Her talk "as most entertaining to the large audience."

Tea was served in the club dining room, with Mrs. Walter L. Peake and Mrs. H. A. Gilbert as hostesses, Mrs. George Todd and Mrs. R. G. Dawson presiding at the tea table.

Garden Club At Youngsville Has
October Session

Youngsville, Oct. 13—Victor Ote, of Warren, was guest speaker for the meeting of the Broken-Down Garden Club held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ad, College street.

A delicious cooperative dinner was enjoyed at 6:30 p. m. The buffet table and rooms of the Mead were very attractive with bouquets of autumn flowers and candles of various colors and sizes. The candles used on the all tables at which the guests were seated for the dinner were in form of fruits or vegetables.

Following the dinner, Mrs. James Milton, president, called the meeting to order. It opened with a rent event talk by E. C. Still, touching on the World Series base ball, and the celebration in Ireland of the victory of the Ireland team. A glimpse was given of what is happening at Berlin and Paris of world interest.

A splendid illustrated lecture was given by Mr. Offerle, who showed a number of reels of moving pictures which he had taken in color. Some were of flower gardens in the Offerle greenhouse in Warren, taken on such special occasions as the 15th anniversary of the garden. Then came scenes of quantities of chrysanthemums at the Yoder establishment at Barberton, Ohio. The pictures shown were of the posing mountains, lakes and water of the Canadian Rockies in the region of Banff and Lake Louise.

At the business session, the suggestion was made that the Youngsville club charter a bus and go as a group to see the chrysanthemums at Barberton. Botanical names were given for the plants and seeds brought by members and changed at the meeting. A nominating committee was appointed to select officers for 1949, with Mrs. M. J. Anderson as chairman. Hostesses for the November meeting will be Mrs. James Hamilton and Mrs. Metro Teconchuk. With the speaker, Miss Mollie Lickering and the topic, "Christmas Greens and Decorations."

CHILD STUDY GROUP

The Pre-school Child Study group held its second meeting of the season Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Marie Sasserson on the Warren-Kinzua Road. The regular business meeting was brought to order by President Emily Schwartz. As this was the first regular business meeting of the season, the group had many points of business to be discussed, including various projects for consideration of the season's activities. One project adopted by the group will be to make a practice of sending book and card to any child of the members who is in the hospital.

The evening's program was a book review given by Mrs. Jeanne Lopez, formerly with the Warren library, and now reference librarian at the Frederick Library in Amestown. The book review was "The Song In The Green Thorn Tree" by James Barke. This is the story of the famous poet, Robert Burns, from the time he was sixteen until he left his home town or Edinburgh, Scotland. The authors in the group all enjoyed the selection and the review given by Mrs. Lopez. Mrs. Ray Wendell was in charge of the program. After the program, refreshments were served by the hostesses Emily Schwartz, Jayne Richardson and Isabel Kifer.

AUTUMN CARD PARTY
AT HOLY REDEEMER

The autumn card party, given annually by the Holy Redeemer church, is scheduled this year for Wednesday evening, October 20, at 8 p. m. in the church hall.

This special party is always held around Halloween time, and the committee chairman reveals that he had decorations and the entire program scheme will center around the autumn season.

Contract and Auction Bridge, Five Hundred and a Series of Games will be played, and the prizes to be awarded in each group will be such that winners will not forget to carry them home. Even for those who do not play there will be awards, such as special prizes.

And the committee on refreshments promises to have something very tempting to be served when the games are over. The waitresses may be disguised as little witches, but their masks fade away you will pleasantly observe a group of the parish's most beautiful young ladies.

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Ruth Riquier, 108 Grant street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Pauline, to Martin C. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Brown, of Paterson, N. J. No date has been set for the wedding.

VFW AUXILIARY
PARTY AND MEETING

VFW Auxiliary members are reminded a meeting will be held in the post rooms at 8 p. m. Thursday following the Gold Star Mothers banquet at the Hotel Carver at 8:30 o'clock.

"The Lady Has Ideas"

As the Warren Players' first production for the coming season gets its finishing touches before presentation this Thursday and Friday, we find that, as usual with the Warren Players, there is always enthusiasm, effort, and ability put into the show by the cast—and also by those responsible for the set.

The setting for "The Lady Has Ideas" was designed by Clifford Forsgren, and is being constructed by Herbert Austin, Sylvester Mullen, Glenn Nelson, James Bailey, and John Shaffer, with Cliff directing the work. Gordon McLean was also working on the set until a separation from his appendix side-lined him.

Twice since the set was started, it had to be "wrapped in velvet" to permit use of the stage for other purposes, which helped keep things interesting for all concerned.

Set decoration was entrusted to Mildred Carter and Carl Hull, and the grape vine has it that they are providing an effect which is sure to cause some sincere "Ah's" when the curtain rises.

Ned Shulman, in addition to his important part in the membership campaign, has taken the lighting assignment for the play, and is doing an effective job.

Myrna Hoagvall is getting the ushers all lined up, and Edna Glasser is doing an efficient job with the mail reservations and box office.

Add to the above the groups working on properties, costumes, make-up, prompting, acting—it seems to go on almost indefinitely—and it takes a lot of people to make a play.

MISSIONARY UNIT
"ENJOYS PROGRAM"

Two "return engagements" highlighted the regular meeting of the Isabella Thorburn Circle held in Dunham parlors of the First Methodist church. The first of these was Byron Swanson, of the Warren Conservatory of Music, who sang three songs of the day, long past. They were "All Through the Night", "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Long, Long Ago". His accompanist was Miss Lillian Larsen.

Miss Edith A. Langdale, of Grace Methodist church, who had appeared on last month's program, answered an emergency call and gave an excellent review of the first half of the study book, "On Our Own Doorstep" by Frank S. Mead. She gave the history of Hawaii from its discovery by Captain Cook to the present time, told of the demoralizing of the natives by the materialism of the white race, and reminded her audience that Hawaii is no longer a "possession" but an integral part of the United States. She stressed the statement that the need for more missionaries is great in this field.

For the devotional service, Miss Estelle Roswell used as her theme "Be Ye Strong in the Lord", and Miss Ida McKinney led the group singing. At the business session, reports were read by Miss Roswell and Mrs. E. J. Messerly. Mrs. Gilbert Loree reminded members to turn in their magazine subscriptions to the WSCS. The chairman, Mrs. W. C. Cable, announced the following for a nominating committee: Mrs. G. E. Young, Mrs. C. A. Miller and Miss McKinney. Mrs. O. J. Groves, Mrs. E. J. Messerly and Miss Margaret Pittman were hostesses and Mrs. W. A. Covert and Mrs. Wayne L. Furman presided at the beautifully decorated tea table.

Red Jackets And Dragons Face Armor-Plated Foes This Week

Armor-plated opponents on out-of-town gridirons is the story for both the Warren Red Jackets and the High Dragons this week.

The rejuvenated Red Jackets will make their first out-of-town excursion of the season today when they travel to McKeesport, 15 miles from downtown Pittsburgh, for a night battle with the McKeesport Ironmen.

And from advance reports on the squad, the Ironmen come by their team name honestly. A tough scrap is in prospect, and it will be quite a feather in the Red Jackets' cap if they can crash through to victory, or even keep the Ironmen from laying up the points.

The Red Jackets return to their familiar stamping grounds on War Memorial Field next Sunday afternoon to meet another tough opponent, the Eureka Steelers of Tarentum.

The "tough nut" facing the Warren Dragons is Bradford. The Blue and White will face the Owls' on the Bradford Field Friday night, with the kickoff at 8 p. m.

The Dragons rank as one of the most aggressive outfits in scholastic grid competition in the district, and have rolled to five straight wins. The Owls have been clipping their own press noses, and also are undefeated in five starts.

A large delegation of Warren district fans is expected to make the jaunt to Bradford for the tilt. The Dragon Band also will be on hand, through the courtesy of the school music boosters association of Warren, who are paying the transportation bill for the musicians.

Tickets for the game are now on sale at the Warren high school offices at 80 cents per copy for adults and 50 cents for students.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

Dr. Jim Giunta drilled the strike pocket for big bundles of strikes on Penn slides last night to rack up a new Industrial Tenpin League single game mark of 357 sticks and also a new league high three-game total of 632. Doc's team mates on the Warren County Insurance squad couldn't keep up with his blistering pace, however, as the team was handed the short end of a 3-1 count in match points by West Penn.

In other league scraps, Timmis Bros. whitewashed Warren County Motors; Kinnears Stationers and Farr's Sports Shop split even; and Check Bros topped Warren Food Lockers, 3-1.

Other high individual performers included Pete Juliano, West Penn, 578; Harold Clepper, Kinnears, 573; Jim Urbanski, Farr's, 571; Chuck Stephens, Timmis Bros, 565; and Bob Check, Check Bros, 560.

HARVEY, ILL., PLANS LOU BOUDREAU DAY

Harvey, Ill., Oct. 13—(P)—A Lou Boudreau Day Oct. 28 is being planned by this Chicago suburb where the player-manager of the World Champion Cleveland Indians has lived since early childhood.

Bill Vecek, president of the Cleveland club, Hank Greenberg, vice president, and other baseball dignitaries have been invited.

Boudreau is expected to arrive in Harvey within several days and most of the town-folk will show up at his modest brick home for an informal welcoming.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

St. Marys padded its lead in the Catholic Daughters tenpin league by whitewashing the Villa Maria squad, while the second place Holy Cross team was dropping a 3-1 verdict to Mercyhurst on Penn alleys last night.

Jaye Pappalardo posted two league high scoring marks, a single game of 186 and a three game aggregate of 488, for the St. Marys team. Other high scorers included: Irene Musante, Mercyhurst, 442; Ange Valone, 391; and Laura D'Angelo, 374.

Stengel New Manager Of The Yankees

New York, Oct. 13—(P)—Fun-filled days are sure to be ahead for the New York Yankees with Charles Dillon Stengel, the inflexible Casey, as the new manager of the club.

Stengel who gained big league baseball fame as a player with the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, and who later managed the Braves as well as the Boston Red Sox, was signed to a two-year contract yesterday. He succeeds Bucky Harris.

He comes back to the leagues after five years in the minors. Only last Sunday, he finished piloting the Oakland Club to a Pacific Coast League pennant and playoff championship.

Stengel managed second divisions clubs in the majors, but has had great success in the minors. Casey led Milwaukee to an American Association flag in 1927.

Although Stengel was a league outfielder 13 years, starred in three World Series and managed for nine years in the big time, he is best remembered for his laugh-provoking antics.

There was the time Casey, objecting to playing in semi-darkness, produced a toy flash light to summon Fred Frankhouse, a pitcher from the bullpen. Although the spectators roared with laughter, Casey drew a $25 fine.

Casey's first job in organized baseball was with his home town Kansas City Club in 1910. He also played that year with Kankakee, Ill., and Maysville, Ky. He went two and a half years to a dental school but never got his diploma.

He joined the Dodgers in 1912. In 1918, Stengel was a Pirate, then entered the Navy. He left Pittsburgh at the end of the 1919 season because he had the temerity to ask owner Barney Dreyfuss for a raise.

"All I wanted was $300 more, so I got the last place Phillies instead," Casey related.

Two Accepted By Aviation Cadet Board

M/Sgt. Donald F. Miller, of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Forces recruiting station in the post office building, announces two more young men from Warren have been accepted by the Aviation Cadet Board and have left for Texas, where they will start primary training as aviation cadets.

Nore T. Gustafson, son of Reverend and Mrs. Nore Gustafson, 4 East Third avenue, is stationed at Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, where he will start his pilot training. After graduation from high school here, he attended University of Minnesota for one year. While in Warren, he secured his private pilots' license solely through his own efforts.

Irwin A. Nicholson, son of Mrs. Alice Nicholson, 50 North State street, North Warren, is stationed at Perrin Field in Sherman, Texas, where he is commencing his pilot training. He is a veteran of four years' service and was in the European Theater of Operations, with combat duty in France and Austria. He attended the Alfred Extension University in Jamestown prior to his acceptance as Aviation Cadet.

M/Sgt. Miller pointed out that after completion of one year of pilot training, they will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Air Force, will have received a $35,000 training, and will take up duties of pilot for the following three years.

In addition to the above acceptances, Sgt. Miller announces three other young men of Warren and vicinity have been accepted by the U. S. Army Air Force in Erie. They are:

Jack W. Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richards, 216 High street, Youngsville, who enlisted in the U. S. Air Force and is now in Texas taking his basic training.

Addison R. Elsholz, of 1123 Secor street, Warren, has enlisted in the 1st Infantry Division in the European Theater of Operations.

John E. Gruber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gruber of Sugar Grove RD 3, who enlisted in the regular army unassigned for two years.

POLITICAL FORUM

(Contributed by the Warren County Democratic Committee) A largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Warren County Democratic Committee was held at the party headquarters, located in the Eagles building, Warren, on Friday evening, October 3.

The presidential election was the principal topic. All of those present agreed that regardless of the fact that big interests and the majority of the newspapers are opposed to the election of Harry S. Truman to a first term as President of the United States, does not
